

I am writing to ask the FCC to reject the CBA petition to overturn the Indiana Do Not Call list. I don't see how anyone has the right to call me to try to sell me services if I have decided to join a list saying I do not want them to call me.